Him to Duties as New York's Governor.

diministration are actually reviewed in a 4000 word statement which William Church Oeborn, chairman of the Democratic State committee, prepared for publication yesterday. He terms Mr. Whitman "a Governor whose eyes are occupied by the architecture of the White House instead of the construction of his State government." He says:

"While the Governor may not realize in the state of the says:

"While the Governor may not realize in the specific of the says in the specific of Croton was not realize."

takes one class of ability to prosecute wise to spend the city's cash on them, no matter what its source.

Edward W. Voorhies, acting Superin-

Their combined five votes defeated Mr. Marks's request for the transfer, as twelve (three-fourths) of the sixteen votes in the board were requisite for passage.

Their combined five votes defeated Mr. Marks's request for the transfer, as twelve (three-fourths) of the sixteen votes in the board were requisite for passage.

Mr. Marks will try once more at next.

Campaign Contributions. Against the Governor and his cam- them

The Standard Oil interests gave him that $5,000 to repair the baths be transcealed under the item of treasurer, expenditures of $22,400 were shown in excess of the amounts subscribed. The real names of the subscribers of a third of his campaign funds were thus concealed and proceedings against his campaign managers were required by law

SCENE FROM "THE RIVER OF SOULS" AT THE LAMBS GAMBOL.

The street of the subscribers of a third statement is true—and if the proceedings against the company of the street of the street use the Legislature was grossly extravagant and because it plotted to lay up a huge surplus to make a showing next year when there will be a Presitial campaign. Because, while threeourths of the State moneys are spent orth of the Harlem where Republican ajorities lie, the direct tax is paid by eater New York in the proportion of What New York Must Pay. This means an additional tax for New York city of $14,161,517, for West-chester county of $665,955, for Albany of $236,409, for Onondaga con $264.215. for Monroe county of $427,-31. for Erie county of $676,687 and the smaller counties proportionately.

"Salaries were increased or new po-ions created in the following departents: Executive, Secretary of State, mptroller, Attorney-General, Civil rvice Commission, Excise Depart-ent, State Board of Tax Commisers, State Athletic Commission. culture, Prisons Department, State al Commission. Conservation ssion, State Engineer and Sur-State Architect, Superintendent Public Buildings, Court of Claims."

This is Mr. Osborn's conclusion:
"This statement is intended to call tion to the fact that we have a Governor unfitted for his task and look-ing forward to another office instead of giving all his abilities to his present

GIANT ZEPPELIN ON TRIAL.

dirahip of New Type Has Three

gigantic Zeppelin of an entirely ype had its trial journey over the quitted. ark on June 3. The airship differs HONORED FOR RESCUE AT SEA. msiderably in form and dimensions on the earlier Zeppelins. with three reservoirs of poisonous gas."

MONOPLANES NOT IN FAVOR.

gle Wing Type of Aeroplanes.

ARIS. June 4 .- One of the great surses of recent weeks from an aeronau-th point of view is the fact, resulting February 4. A. A. Raven, president of the United
A. A. Raven, president of the United States Life Saving Benevolent Association of New York, made the presentation of New York, made the presentation.

Capt. Mills's medal is gold and those of the officers are silver. The large emphasically. But to his nt of view is the fact, resulting

Sefuse to Accept Any Pay for In-

terned Aeroplane. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN despatch from its corre-

The Swiss military authorities sought fell in the Jura Mountains two and as a token of its gratitude

IN WHITMAN'S EYE OPEN AIR SWIMMING

W. C. Osborn Says It Blinds Comptroller Blocks Borough President Marks's Efforts in Estimate Board.

SCORES ADMINISTRATION MEANENY FAVORS BATHS

The first five months of the Whitman Comptroller Prendergast's opinion that Manhattan's children can get along

"While the Governor may not realize ing that the sunlit pools of Croton were his friends now see plainly that it unnecessary, he argued that it was un-whity to manage the affairs of a great tendent of Public Works of Brooklyn. voting for Borough President Pounds,

He accuses the Legislature of fat- who is on his way from San Francisco, ously trying to "undo all our recent objected to piecemeal appropriation.

Their combined five votes defeated Mr.

have a greedy crew in charge, our public progress is stopped and we have $19,tangon direct tax to pay."

Mr. Marks will try once more at the week's meeting, when Mayor Mitchel will be present. He and some other members of the board believe that only will be needed nine votes, a majority, will be needed then. Mr. Prendergast differs with them on this point, too, so maybe the Against the Governor and great bath control of a until the snow files again.

When Mr. Marks asked yesterday when Mr. Marks asked yesterday

$8.850. The First National Bank crowd ferred from his highways appropriation and said other savings could be transferred next week to pay the bath atwere concealed under the item of contributions of $6,846 were con-

Russian Woman Had Been Imprisoned for Plot to Kill Admirer.

ROME, June 4.—Countess Marie Tar-nowska, convicted at Venice in May, 1910, of complicity in the murder of an admirer. Count Kamotowsky, and sentenced to eight years imprisonment, has been pardoned and released from The Countess was the central figure in one of the most famous of Italian mur-that she planned to have her two other admirers kill the Count so that she could collect this insurance. Naumoff finally killed the Count in Venice in 1997 and Prilukoff, according to the evidence and the count in Venice in 1997 and the count in Venice i the conditions which have existed dur-ting the past five months."

The charge against the woman was that she planned to have her two other admirers kill the Count so that she could admirers kill the Count so that she could a killed the Count in Venice in 1907 and Prilukoff, according to the evidence produced, was planning to kill Naumoff when both were arrested along with the woman and the latter's maid.

The condition with the inside-outside and outside-inside work of getting up the condition with the inside-outside and outside-inside work of getting up the condition with the inside-outside and outside-inside work of getting up the condition with the inside-outside and outside-inside work of getting up the condition with the inside-outside and outside-inside work of getting up the condition with the inside-outside and outside-inside work of getting up the condition with the inside-outside and outside-inside work of getting up the condition with the condition with the inside-outside and outside-inside work of getting up the condition with the condition with the inside-outside and outside work of getting up the condition with the condition with the condition with the inside-outside and outside work of getting up the condition with the inside-outside and outside work of getting up the condition with the inside-outside and outside work of getting up the condition with the condi is heavily armored and is supplied Officers and Men of the Liner Phil-tive of their rescue of the skipper and ing an other crew of the Dutch tank steamship Ches. at eight pianos about to play their own ter in wild weather in midocean on compositions, turned to seat himself at in wild weather in midocean on those of the officers are sliver. The members of the boat's crews who took off the men of the Chester, and, who received bronze medals, are C. Croutear, C. Martin, A. Templeton, E. Chisholm, P. Quigley, A. Perion, W. Bordensen, J. O'Shea, G. Wilson, P. Long, L. Petersen and C. Van Gordon.

Parits, June 4.—The Temps publishes rescue of the mem of the Chester.

WHITE HOUSE MOTE MONEY REFUSED FOR GAMBOL OF THE LAMBS REACHES UP TOWARD THE $30,000 IN CASH MARK

allowed to seep into them.

"I believe that to cut out out these baths in view of the tremendous service they have rendered is without warrant."

I have heard your sweet speech and it makes not the slightest impression on ... "There are other elements than sweet. In the case of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

COUNTESS TARNOWSKA

PARDONED IN ITALY

A part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board. "The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of the board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was then taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was the taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining members of this board."

The vote was the taken.

Part of the consideration of the remaining mem around $18,000 for the evening. True Talk by Daniel Frohman.

Also before statisticians foot up these amounts the returns from to-day's matinee and night performances will be coming in. Wherefore, Daniel Frohman spoke true talk when, after a glance at figures las: night, he said that the three performances will net the fund about $30,000, even when expenses are deducted. Furthermore—

Wherefore of amounts the returns from to-day's matdeducted. Furthermore— But with the memories of all the glit-to devote to 'rithmetic In fact even Miss Jose Collins, first

In fact even Miss Jose Collins, first over the lobby line long before 8 o'clock last night, said that the Lambs had made good; and Miss Jose came there straight from Missouri to be shown. For one of the most famous of Italian murder trials, lasting 100 days. She had married the Russian nobleman twelve years before and her husband already had been tried and acquitted in connection with the killing of reaction and that the sole of the people of this State of ricous waste, of destruction of intuitions for the benefit of the people of disregard of enlightenment and office of the selection of menting the first of the selection of menting the selection of the selection of menting the selection of the selection of menting the selection of menting the selection of menting the selection of the selection of the selection of menting the selection of the selecti 000 in her favor.

The charge against the woman was Collins remarked emphatically,

Poisonous Gas Reservoirs.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun
London, June 5.—The Daily Mail's tele-and eight years respectable for their acts and they were sentrolly years the counters are selected to three and eight years respectant backstage Tom Wise cried joy-

Only One Falls Down.

From that moment until midnight the only Lamb that fell down on his job was Victor Herbert, and Mr. Herbert adelphia Receive Medals.

Capt. Arthur R. Mills of the American liner Philadelphia, Chief Officer H. Candy and First Officer T. H. Lyons received yesterday medals commemorative of their rescue of the skipper and crew of the Dutch tank steamship Ches.

and Mr. Herbert sat upon the hard, hard stage emphatically. But to his sid when Mr. Herbert fell down ad lib came his brother geniuses on the stage and the pianos struck up and the Gamboi straightway hit its stride.

P. Quigley, A. Perion, W. Bordensen, J. O'Shea, G. Wilson, P. Long, L. Petersen and C. Van Gordon.

An Amsterdam despatch to the American Line yesterday said that a royal decree has been issued conferring a gold medal on Capt. Mills and a silver medal on each member of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the discovered with the control of the crew for the cre Fernandez was the Gen. Joffre in command of the lobby willing workers—and Marjorie Woods and Louise Drews, et al., who, even if some of them, because of them, because of them because of them because of the work on bend couldn't be supported by the work of th Aviator Thaw Coming Home From War.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.

Marjorie Woods and Louise Drews, et al., who, even if some of them, because of other work on hand, couldn't be present early, got on the job enthusiastically later on.

Mr. Courtleigh came upon the stage

R. L. Goldberg, Winsor McCay and Clare Briggs grabbed all the footlight splendor next and smeared colored crayon all over great sheets of paper while the audience whooped things up. They in turn made way for the most pretentious offering of the gambol, an allegory in five scenes, entitled, "Why?" and writ-

Wherefore of War.

Mr. Hobart in his play starts a great this afternoon and evening.

Wins the Seat of Honor

Fame (Mr. Christie) brushed them all aside, however, until James O'Neill of-fered himself as a willing candidate And for weighty reasons which Fame honor, a choice the crowd on the other side of the footlights noisily approved. There was a "Grand Finale" of course. This happened along late at night and "Why?" has to do with the wherefore therefore permitted the introduction But with the memories of all the glitter and glory such as only a first night Gambol can flash forth, this is no time | Devereaux, William J. Kelly Thomas | Brook of Brooklyn and The Company of the stars who are now holding down the wherefore | therefore permitted the introduction of the stars who are now holding down the stars who are now holding the stars who are now Devereaux, William J. Kelly, Thomas Bronx, via Broadway. And after that Wise, Henry Kolker, Willard Lewis everybody hurried toward the bright John Hendricks and a long string of lights a few blocks further down town other prominent Lambs-so many, in to take a good rest by tangoing, so that fact, that even the first magnitude stars in the allegory are too many to mention here.

bright and early they will be on the job when Lord High Tom Wise calls his Lambs about him to do it all over again

HANAN DUCHESS ENDS | MIDSHIPMEN'S FATE HER ANNULMENT SUIT

Duke de Majo Durazzo Now in Secretary Finished Inquiry In-Schenectady-Won't

Brooklyn, attorney for the Duchess. The notice, of course, had to be The midshipmen who have been under signed by the defendant. Eliot Norton, the Duke's lawyer, refused to give any second class, Chaplin Evans, Virginia: reason for the Duchess's step. He said Stuart Hamilton, Connecticut; Leonard his client had left town. There was a P. Wessels, North Carolina; third class. Donald E. Duncan, Michigan; Thomas report that the Duke would soon go W. Harriso

The Duchess, who is a sister of John H. Hanan, a shoe manufacturer, started her suit for annulment in October last. The filing of the papers caused much comment as the country bath of th ever, that he is in Schenectady. comment, as the couple had been mar-ried in February, 1914. The Duchess in her complaint alleged that before his seen at his boarding house, 712 Union street, to-night the Duke de Majo Durazzo appeared to be greatly excited when asked for a statement in regard to

IN DANIELS'S HANDS

to Annapolis Examina-

tively. Prilukoff was sentenced to ten ously, "Jim's here, so let us begin to Hanan, for an annulment of her mar- case of the seven midshipmen charged years imprisonment. The maid was ac- begin." And they were off: razzo was discontinued yesterday in the information at examinations at the Supreme Court at White Plains. The Naval Academy and may announce his notice of discontinuance was filed by conclusions to-morrow. It is possible Anthony F. Tuozzo of 44 Court street, that the affair will expose many unfair MAYOR MITCHEL NOT TALKING actions in examinations.

compositions, turned to seat himself at his own plane the plane stool wasn't back to Italy to enlist in the army. It here, at least it wasn't where Mr. Herbert was learned through Mr. Norton, how-midshipmen appeared before Secretary Daniels to-day.

It is understood that the guilt or in-nocence of all the accused men turns upon the source of a paper containing of larceny in France. She said that ifter learning this she had refused to examination. A theory which would tend to the defence of the young men is that they did not be these asked in the Spanish examination. A theory which would tend to the defence of the young men is that they did not know that it was a copy of examination questions, but con-sidered it merely as a friendly suggestion as to the matter upon which they should prepare themselves.

Gustave Van Lennep, the art sales-Special Cable Despate to The Sus.

The French Government making a gift of the machine to as a token of its gratitude kindness of the Swiss in the hepatriating French prisoners. Every Government has accepted with a special Cable Despate to The Sus.

Mr. Courtleigh came upon the stage when asked for a statement it regard to the discontinuance of his wife's suit.

"How did you know I was here?" he dealer of 220 Fifth avenue, to receive an art dealer of 220 Fifth avenue, to receive the discontinuance of his wife's suit.

"How did you know I was here?" he demanded. "I am sick and tired of the whole business and hoped I was where here tain rose to show what might have been mistaken for the interior of a Forty-town through its remaining stages by the demanded. "I am sick and tired of the state was passed to sail for New York on the French Line was passed to sail for New York on the French Line dealer of 220 Fifth avenue, to receive the demanded. "I am sick and tired of the discontinuance of his wife's suit.

"How did you know I was here?" he demanded. "I am sick and tired of the discontinuance of his wife's suit.

"How did you know I was here?" he dealer of 220 Fifth avenue, to receive the demanded. "I am sick and tired of the discontinuance of his wife's suit.

"How did you know I was here?" he demanded. "I am sick and tired of the discontinuance of his wife's suit.

"How did you know I was here?" he demanded. "I am sick and tired of the discontinuance of his wife's suit.

"How did you know I was here?" he dealer of 220 Fifth avenue, to receive the demanded. "I am sick and tired of the discontin

JURY GIVES WILDER BECKER WILL PLEAD $5,000 LOVE BALM COURT OVERSIGHT

Weigh Flaws.

heard the gunmen say, "Everything is Alienation Suit Ends in Vic- Strong Arm Chief's Attorneys tory for Morristown Will Tell Court It Didn't Broker.

DR. WILLIS' DENIAL FAILS FOUR STORIES ASSAILED

Morristown, N. J., June 4 .- George The testimony of four of the wit-Stuart Willis of this city must pay nesses at the trial of Charles Becker George D. Wilder, a New York broker, for the murder of Herman Rosenthal $5,000 for alienation of Mrs. Wilder's will be dwelt upon with especial emaffections in the spring of 1914. The phasis when Becker's counsel, Martin 7 jury that has heard the evidence in the Manton, applies to the Court of Appeals suit found for the plaintiff this after- for a review of the application for a noon after two hours deliberation. . | third trial for Becker.

Aside from the unusual character of The four witnesses are James Marthe testimony, the suit aroused great in- shall, the negro youth whose testimony terest here because of the prominence of established the all important point that the principals, the assertions of Wilder Becker and Rose had had a conference on the stand that if he got the $50,000 in Harlem previous to the murder; he sued for he would give it to the Red Willie Shapiro, the driver of the gray lross or some other charity, and state- "murder car," who testified that a few nents of allenists regarding Mrs. minutes before the shooting he had Wilder's mental condition. The climax of the testimony was yes- all right; Becker has fixed it"; ex-told of her intimacy with Dr. Willis, of Dougherty, whose testimony had to do his kissing her while or professional with any communications Becker and visits, her mental anguish later and her Rose had between the night of the murvisits, her mental anguish later and her der and the arrest of Rose, and Charles der and the arrest of Rose, and Charles B. Plitt, Jr.. Becker's press agent, who said that Becker had warned him to said that Becker had warned him to stay away from Times Square on the Hotel Wallick, Broadway and Forty-

LINER TO SAIL DESPITE Wilder telling of the relations she alleges existed between herself and the Dr. Willis said he thought best to sign such a document, as Mrs.

Wilder was in a nervous state.
Mr. Wilder, who preceded Dr. Willis witness, said he did not shoot Dr as witness, said he did not shoot Dr. Willis, because that would have brought a worse stain on his children. He said he brought the suit because he thought other women in Morristown might be a prey for Dr. Willis and he should be ex-

CHINESE VISITORS SEE SIGHTS.

Greatly Interested in Bush Terminal-Tour Harbor. The Chinese commercial commission ers were greatly impressed yesterday articles. with the Bush Terminal, which they visited as the guests of the Mayor's committee. They are contemplating of a similar terminal plant for the port of Shanghat. They said that nothing had given them a better idea on the modern facilities for handling freight in large quantities.

The entertainment provided by the Mayor's committee yesterday included a water trip around the harbor of New York on the steamer Correction and visits to the new cofferdam and other points of interest. Luncheon was served on board the steamer. The commissioners, with the Mayor's committee and about sixty guests, posed for pictures.

The ten junior engineers decided yesterday in the time for the pound in the strike. Eight of them signed ship's articles.

The ten junior engineers decided yesterday included yesterday that they would not join in the strike. Eight of them signed ship's articles.

The ten junior engineers decided yesterday that they would not join in the stirke. Eight of them signed ship's articles.

Eight of them signed ship's articles.

The other would not join in the stirke. Eight of them signed ship's articles.

Eight of them signed yesterday that they would not join in the stirke. Eight of them signed ship's articles.

Eight of them signed yesterday that they would not join in the stirke. Eight of them signed ship's articles.

Eight of them signed yesterday that they would not join in the stirke. Eight of them signed ship's articles.

The ten junior engineers decided yesterday that they would not join in the stirke. Eight of them signed ship's articles.

The ten junior engineers decided yesterday that they would not join in the stirke. Eight of them signed ship's articles.

The ten junior engineers decided yesterday that they would not join in the stirke. Eight of them signed ship's articles.

Counsel for Gibson's fight is being conducted by the stirke. Eight of them signed ship's articles.

Counsel for Gibson's fight is being conducted yesterday that they would sign the streamening to have said they would sign the subje with the Bush Terminal, which they

The suit of the Duchess de Majo Durazzo, formerly Miss Elizabeth F. Hanan, for an annulment of her marriage to the Duke Arturo de Majo Durage with participation in the many forms and annulment of the marriage to the Duke Arturo de Majo Durage with participation in the many forms and the many forms the New York Roof Garden.

Wires From Alberta His Denial of a Reported Interview.

A morning newspaper printed on Thursday a despatch from Portland, Ore., quoting Mayor Micchel as saying: "I think that the Republicans will nominate some one from the middle States or the West. Whitman is not so strong as he was. He is losing strength and if you consider him a possibility out here, then I can only say that the news has not percolated this far."

Theodore Rousseau, Mayor Mitchel's secretary, caught his chief by telegram to Lake Louise, Alberta, yesterday, and received this reply:
"Please deny interview. I have not discussed Gov. Whitman as Presidential politics since leaving city except to say that in my opinion President Wilson wil be renominated and reelected."

CABINET BILL PASSED.

Have declined to discus-

Reelection of Ministers Promotes

Made Unnecessary. LONDON, June 4 .- The bill making un necessary the reelection of Ministers pro-noted in the new Cabinet was passed

THE HARD PART

The hard part about a build ing operation which is inefficiently handled is, that it carries the mark of that inefficiency for the balance of its days. You cannot inject quality into a building after it is completed, you cannot by any miracle ever retrieve the three months delay in its construction, you cannot economize on the money which is spent.

But you can hire us now and thus avoid the aforementioned contingencies.

THOMPSON-STARRETT COMPANY

Building Construction FINED, HE'S GLAD TO

terday when Mrs. Wilder on the stand Deputy Police Commissioner George Manager of Wallick's Joins Hotel Men Who Oppose

PUT CURB ON CABARET

Costly Shows. she said.
"I'd like to see any man handle him, let alone a woman," she said on the stand.

It is the contention of Becker's counsel that the Court of Appeals did not take the Court of Appeals did not take that the Court of Appeals did not take th

Mrs. Wilder said she was in court because of stories told about her by Dr. Willis that she was insane and a drunkard and that she would ruin his reputation if she talked.

"But you are sane, aren't you?" she was asked.

"I don't know," she answered.
To-day's finding of the jury came.

Mercy, $1,431.50, total, $193.,45.31; the Prince of Wales National Relief Fund, $707, total, $125.903; Secours National Fund, $180, making a total of $79.-cos.44; New York State board of the American Red Cross, $1,163.18, total, $497,736.53.

Philadelphia Will Start Over GIBSON SEEKS TO BE FREED.

Ex-Lawyer's Appeal From Szabo

Conviction Is Argued. Burton W. Gibson, who has been i The American liner Philadelphia, according to the officials of the line, will embezzling $7,100 from the estate of sail promptly at noon to-day, whether Mrs. Rose Szabo, of which he was the or not the ship's chief engineer and his executor, is seeking to be freed through an appeal argued yesterday before the six senior assistants decide to sign Appellate Division of the Supreme Court The ten junior engineers decided yes-erday that they would not join in the trike. Eight of them signed ships

Stern Brothers

To-day, Saturday, on the Third Floor,

Men's and Young Men's Smart Summer Suits

will be offered at extremely low prices, as follows:

Men's Suits, $15.00 | Men's Suits, $17.50 Regular Values up to $22.50

"WAR RISK" STRIKE

Sea To-day No Matter What

Engineers Do.

Men's Suits, $23.00 Regular Values up to $37.50 White Flannel Trousers

> Regular Value $5.00, at $3.75

Regular Values up to $25,00

Youths' Suits. $10.00 Regular Values up to $15.00

Men's Flannel Suits in stripes and plain colors.

at $11.75